Malone Tornadoes is a Mixed Ability Rugby Team, based in Belfast, and actively changing community rugby through its well-established, world-renowned, diverse and inclusive club.

'If we were to start sport again, we would probably use the Mixed Ability model to reshape it.' - Catherine Carey UNESCO Chair in Inclusive Physical Education, Sport, Fitness and Recreation.

Tornadoes are now seeking sponsorship and partnership for the next exciting chapter, from 2024 onwards incorporating their participation in IMART 2025 World Cup, Pamplona, Spain.

Potential sponsors can get to be part of.....

- Connecting and celebrating Malone Tornadoes MAR Team and raising awareness of the sport.
- Supporting opportunities for players of all disabilities and abilities to improve their rugby skills both at training and by playing matches.
- Recognition of company brand and values alongside Malone Tornadoes own fast-growing reputation locally, nationally and globally.

If you've 'caught' the rugby ball and are 'going forward looking for contact' please 'pass' your interest in finding out more about being part of Malone Tornadoes by emailing your details to the Tornadoes.

A range of sponsorship packages are available from the Main Partnership to customised, individual, bespoke sponsorship options.

Please enquire within and start your company's affinity to Malone Tornadoes Mixed Ability Rugby Team.
