INTRODUCTION

The gift of new life, of eternal life, is the gift of the risen Christ. It is the promise of Jesus. It was true for Dorcas in Joppa. It is true for us and for all the baptized. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow us all the days of our lives, and we will dwell in the house of the Lord forever!

EASTER GREETING

Alleluia! Christ is risen!

Christ is risen indeed! Alleluia!

The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with you all.

And also with you.

THANKSGIVING FOR BAPTISM

Joined to Christ in the waters of baptism, clothed with God's mercy and forgiveness, let us give thanks for the gift of baptism.

Holy God, fountain of living water, source of mercy, tender and mighty, you are clothed with majesty and splendor.

Your steadfast love fills the earth.

Your love flows through water, satisfying the thirst of all living things, sustaining life in this community, nourishing and delighting us.

We bless you for these gifts of water:

Lake Michigan, the Chicago River, and the Skokie Lagoons.

Your steadfast love fills the earth.

Your love flows through water, a sign of your saving power:

Noah and the animals survive the flood,

Hagar discovers your well.

The Israelites escape through the sea,
and they drink from your gushing rock.

Naaman washes his leprosy away,
and the Samaritan woman will never be thirsty again.

Your steadfast love fills the earth.

Your love flows through the water of baptism joined to your life-giving Word:

your well of mercy and cleansing flood,

your sea of deliverance from death into life,

your healing river washing sin away,

your living water springing up to eternal life.

Your steadfast love fills the earth.

Shower us with your Holy Spirit. Fill us with your love.

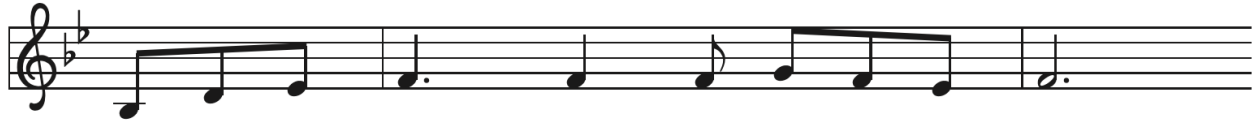

Clothe us and all your people with grace.

Embolden us to do justice. Bless us to love mercy.

Guide us to walk humbly with you,
whom we thank and praise, through Jesus Christ,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit, now and forever.

Amen.

CANTICLE OF PRAISE

PRAYER OF THE DAY

Let us pray together.

O God of peace, you delivered out of death our sister Tabitha, a great ancestor in the faith. By your grace and eternal covenant, deliver us also, and make us whole. Open our hearts to the movement of the Holy Spirit among us, that we may join the joyful dance of your creative activity in the world. We pray through Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

READING

Acts 9:36-43

A reading from the Acts of the Apostles.

³⁶Now in Joppa there was a disciple whose name was Tabitha, which in Greek is Dorcas. She was devoted to good works and acts of charity. ³⁷At that time she became ill and died. When they had washed her, they laid her in a room upstairs. ³⁸Since Lydda was near Joppa, the disciples, who heard that Peter was there, sent two men to him with the request, "Please come to us without delay." ³⁹So Peter got up and went with them; and when he arrived, they took him to the room upstairs. All the widows stood beside him, weeping and showing tunics and other clothing that Dorcas had made while she was with them. ⁴⁰Peter put all of them outside, and then he knelt down and prayed. He turned to the body and said, "Tabitha, get up." Then she opened her eyes, and seeing Peter, she sat up. ⁴¹He gave her his hand and helped her up. Then calling the saints and widows, he showed her to be alive. ⁴²This became known throughout Joppa, and many believed in the Lord. ⁴³Meanwhile he stayed in Joppa for some time with a certain Simon, a tanner.

Word of God, word of life.

Thanks be to God.

PSALM

Psalm 23

Read in unison.

- ¹The LORD is my shepherd;
I shall not be in want.
- ²The LORD makes me lie down in green pastures and leads me beside still waters.
- ³You restore my soul, O LORD,
and guide me along right pathways for your name's sake.
- ⁴Though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I shall fear no evil;
for you are with me; your rod and your staff, they comfort me.
- ⁵You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies;
you anoint my head with oil, and my cup is running over.
- ⁶Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life, and I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.

GOSPEL

John 10:22-30

The holy gospel according to John.

Glory to you, O Lord.

²² The time came for Hanukkah, the Feast of the Dedication, in Jerusalem. ²³ It was winter, and Jesus was walking in the Temple area, in Solomon's Porch, ²⁴ when the Temple authorities surrounded him and said, "How long are you going to keep us in suspense? If you really are the Messiah, tell us plainly." ²⁵ Jesus replied, "I did tell you, but you don't believe. The work I do in my Abba's name gives witness in my favor, ²⁶ but you don't believe because you're not my sheep. ²⁷ My sheep hear my voice. I know them, and they follow me. ²⁸ I give them eternal life, and they will never be lost. No one will ever snatch them from my hand. ²⁹ Abba God, who gave them to me, is greater than anyone, and no one can steal them from Abba God. ³⁰ For Abba and I are One."

The gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, O Christ.

HYMN OF THE DAY

For All the Faithful Women

For all the faithful women who served in days of old,
to you shall thanks be given; to all, their story told.
They served with strength and gladness in tasks your wisdom gave.
To you their lives bore witness, proclaimed your pow'r to save.

Lord, hear our praise of Dorcas, who served the sick and poor.
Her hands were cups of kindness, her heart an open door.
Send us, O Christ, your Body, where people cry in pain,
and touch them with compassion to make them whole again.

O God, for saints and servants, those named and those unknown, in whom through all the ages your light of glory shone, we offer glad thanksgiving and fervent prayer we raise that, faithful in your service, our lives may sing your praise.

All praise to God the Mother! All praise to Christ the Child!
All praise to God the Spirit, whose dance is bold and wild!
With saints who went before us, with saints who witness still,
we sing glad alleluias and live to do your will.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

I invite you to assume a posture of prayer. You may sit, stand, or kneel; fold your hands or turn them upward; close your eyes or lift them to the altar.

Set free from captivity to sin and death, we pray to the God of resurrection for the church, people in need, and all of creation.

Gentle Shepherd, enable your church to respond to the voice of Jesus. Give us unfailing trust, unafraid to join in Jesus' work of renewing all things. God, in your mercy,
hear our prayer.

Feed your people at the table of creation. Prepare a safe place for those whose environments are dangerous or unhealthy, especially those making difficult journeys. Prosper your creation for the sake of every living thing. God, in your mercy,
hear our prayer.

Warm the hearts of all who celebrate and all who mourn on Mother's Day. Accompany those yearning to be mothers, those who have lost mothers, and those who have lost children. Help us to heal from broken family relationships, and open us to receive your nurturing love from all who serve mothering roles in our lives. God, in your mercy,
hear our prayer.

Seek out those who weep while they await healing or consolation. Set people in their path who can provide the care they need, and wipe away every tear from their eyes. God, in your mercy,
hear our prayer.

Inspire the words of prophets and saints who employ innovative imagery to stretch our understanding. Send Christ to instruct us with motherly care. God, in your mercy,
hear our prayer.

People of God, for what else shall we pray this day? Your prayers are invited now, either silently or aloud. (Pause for prayers.)

God, in your mercy, or Lord, we praise you, receive our prayer. Thanks be to God.

Enfold us in the great multitude of saints from every nation, from all tribes and peoples and languages. Wash us in your saving grace every day, guiding us to your waters of life. God, in your mercy,
hear our prayer.

In your mercy, O God, respond to these prayers, and renew us by your life-giving Spirit; through Jesus Christ, our Savior. Amen.

THE PEACE

The peace of Christ be with you always.

And also with you.

You are invited to share a sign of peace with one another (wave, handshake, hug, etc.), honoring the personal boundaries of all. Those online may unmute and verbally share the peace.

INVITATION TO OFFERING

During this season of Easter, we are inspired by the beloved community of the early church, where resources were shared by all. We, too, seek to share our resources so that we can live in harmony, balance, and mutuality with one another. Following the example of the earliest Christians, we offer our gifts now, so that the ministry of this church may continue to participate in God's compassion and renewal.

OFFERING

*We give thanks for your ongoing support of the ministry of St. John's!
Gifts may be placed in the offering plate, made in the Vanco Mobile app, or given online at stjohnswilmette.org/give. Thank you for your generosity!*

OFFERTORY VERSE

Let the vine-yards be fruit-ful, Lord, and fill to the brim our cup of bless-ing. Gath-er a har-vest from the seeds that were sown, that we may be fed with the bread of life. Gath-er the hopes and dreams of all; u-nite them with the prayers we of-fer. Grace our ta-ble with your pres-ence, and give us a fore-taste of the feast to come.

OFFERTORY PRAYER

Let us pray together.

God of goodness and growth,
all creation is yours, and your faithfulness is sure.

Word and water, wine and bread:
these are signs of your abundant grace.

Receive the gifts we bring,
and nourish us to proclaim your abiding love

in our communities and in the world, through Jesus Christ, our strength and our song.

Amen.

INVITATION

COMMUNION

All are welcome to commune at Christ's table! If you are online, serve yourself or those worshipping with you by saying, "The body of Christ, given for you," and "The blood of Christ, shed for you." If you are communing in person, please proceed down the center aisle at the direction of an usher, maintaining social distancing. You may receive bread or request a gluten-free wafer. Please step forward and then remove your mask to eat in front of the altar. A glass of wine (dark colored) will be placed on the table next to you, or you may request grape juice (light colored). You may drink and then place the empty glass in the basket. Please put your mask back on before returning to your seat. If you would prefer to receive only a blessing, you may cross your arms across your chest to indicate this preference. If you would like to receive communion in your seat, please inform an usher, and the elements will be brought to you.

COMMUNION SONG

PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION

Let us pray together.

Living God,

as the disciples ate and drank with their risen Lord,

we have been nourished with the very presence of Christ.

Through this meal, may we be strengthened to keep your word and to proclaim the power of your love in Jesus Christ, our Savior.

Amen.

RECESSIONAL HYMN

Come Rejoicing, Celebrating Life Together

The congregation may turn to continue facing the cross as it is carried out.

Come rejoicing, celebrating life together through the years, being church in many places, joined in mission far and near.
Holy Wisdom still is guiding, showing all her paths of peace;
like the trees in fullest blossom, all our talents will increase.

Learning, growing here together, we create the church anew, still reforming and transforming, leading to a wider view.
Sister Brother Spirit guiding, we claim all we're meant to be,
future visions guide us forward, making dreams reality.

Celebrate the Holy Mystery, deep within us and above, giving power for each challenge, filling all with hope and love.
Past and present flow together, streams of blessing, full and free;
future visions guide us forward, making dreams reality.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

First Communion/Thanksgiving for Communion Classes

Student Pastor Derek is concluding a three-week First Communion/Thanksgiving for Communion class with children and youth today. The class meets during Children's Church time, in person only. We will celebrate and receive first communion next Sunday, May 15th during the 9:30 am service. All children are welcome and encouraged to participate regardless of whether they've received communion previously. If you'd like to volunteer to assist or have questions, please email derek@stjohnswilmette.com.

Family Promise at St. John's

St. John's is excited to be hosting Family Promise families for three weeks, from May 1-22. Currently there are two families in the program: Marcus and his three boys: Marius, 4 yr., Ky, 3 yr. and Maison, 1 yr. and Dulce and her daughter, Valerie, 15 months. We had a great first week getting to know the families and sharing dinner meals with them. For the remaining two weeks, there are four open evenings for dinner volunteers: Thurs. 5/12, Mon. 5/16, Thurs. 5/19, and Fri. 5/20. If you would like to provide dinner and eat with the families on any of these nights, please contact Pastor Allison.

Mission & Vision Special Service

On Sunday, May 22, we will have a special worship service that includes a focus on the ongoing development of our strategic plan. The Mission and Vision Team will share the ideas and reflections we heard during the small group sessions in March-April, and there will be opportunity for further reflection. The service will be held in the Fellowship Hall, and there will be no Zoom or streaming of the service that Sunday. See you there as we continue discern together where the Holy Spirit is leading St. John's!

Family Promise Farewell Party for Tracy McKeithen

You are invited to a farewell party for Tracy McKeithen, Family Promise North Shore Executive Director, at St. John's next Sunday, May 15, 1:00-3:00 pm. Tracy has been with Family Promise since August of 2011, and is leaving for another position. Come for refreshments and to wish Tracy farewell and godspeed. See the link in this week's Enews for further information.

Wilmette's Sesquicentennial Celebration

The celebration of Wilmette's 150th birthday includes the improvement of a Village Center alley to provide safe pedestrian access between the Metra parking lot and the shops and restaurants in the Village Center. Part of this work will be a sidewalk with commemorative bricks identifying citizens, businesses and organizations that have been part of the development of the community. St. John's is certainly one of the foundational organizations dating back to its establishment in 1903 and it would be great to commemorate that fact. The cost of a brick is $150 or $250 depending on its size and so far, $50 has been pledged towards a St. John's brick. If you would like to contribute towards this effort, please do so through Jan Wendel in the church office. The deadline is May 31.

Bible Study Remains Online Only

Weekly Bible Study will remain meeting online from 11:00 am-12:00 pm on Tuesdays. Bible Study can be accessed via our worship Zoom link.

Visitors for Sarah

Sarah Rink, a regular participant at the Saturday service and now a participant in Sunday morning services, is looking for folks who would be willing to visit her in her home (1900 Wilmette Ave. #2F). She is experiencing chronic pain, and having visitors would be a great blessing in her life. She is open to hosting visitors at 4 pm or 5 pm on Mondays, Tuesdays, Fridays, Saturdays, and Sundays. Sarah is fully vaccinated and happy to wear a mask if that is preferred. Please give her a call at 847-251-2758 to let her know when you can stop by!

Mask Update

Masks are now optional for activities at St. John's with the important exceptions of worship and youth programming. Worship leaders, including cantors/song leaders, may now remove masks while leading, but the congregation will remain masked and socially distanced from leaders. If you have any questions or concerns about our current policy, please contact our Re-Entry Team (Pastor Allison, Michel Hauser, Al Swanson, Christi Wise).

Amazon Smile

Amazon Smile is a nonprofit that donates a small percentage of your Amazon purchases to a charity of your choice. If you plan to make any orders on through Amazon, please consider using smile.amazon.com rather than amazon.com to make your purchases. There, you can search for all the same products and have access to all your prime benefits, and when you place your order, you can designate "St John Evangelical Lutheran Church" as your charity. Please note that we recommend Amazon Smile to be used only as an alternative to Amazon.com. Whenever possible, St. John's encourages all its members to make purchases locally.

BULLETIN COVER ART

Tabitha: The Creative Leader

By Cara Quinn

From knowyourmothers.com

Know Your Mothers is a project that seeks to unearth the buried stories of Christian women who have been ignored for too long. The art is a significant part of this project and seeks to honor these women in a visually dynamic way. Inspired by the icons which are venerated in Eastern Orthodox and the Catholic church traditions, these “modern icons” hope to aid in elevating these women to a place of honor as a part of worship.
