

EMERGENCY ARREST RIGHTS

TEAM RAR EMERGENCY LIST OF RIGHTS IF YOU ARE ARRESTED BY TEAM RAR OFFICERS

- 1. You have the right to be informed of the reason for arrest.
Any person taken into Team RAR custody shall be told the cause of such arrest by the arresting officers.
- 2. You have the right to remain silent before Team RAR officers.
No person under arrest shall be forced to make a statement before questioning or review.
- 3. You have the right to request command review.
Any arrested person may request that a superior officer or command authority review the arrest.
- 4. You have the right to humane treatment.
No officer shall use unnecessary force, cruel punishment, or degrading treatment upon any arrested person.
- 5. You have the right to secure detention.
Any detained person shall be held in a safe and controlled manner until release, transfer, or further action is ordered.
- 6. You have the right to know the charge or violation.
The arrested person shall be informed of the offense, violation, or breach of Team RAR order alleged against them.
- 7. You have the right to present your side of the matter.
At the proper time, the arrested person may give an account of events before Team RAR command or disciplinary authority.
- 8. You have the right to officer identification.
The arresting officers shall identify themselves as Team RAR officers when carrying out an arrest action.
- 9. You have the right to a record of arrest.
Every arrest shall be entered into official Team RAR record, including the name of the person arrested, officers involved, cause, date, and action taken.
- 10. You have the right to fair review.
An arrest alone shall not be treated as final proof of guilt until reviewed by proper Team RAR authority.
- 11. You have the right to appeal internal punishment.
Any person punished, suspended, confined, or removed after arrest may request a higher review by command.
- 12. You have the right to final disposition.
The arrested person shall be informed whether the matter ends in warning, release, suspension, removal, or further internal action.

Official Team RAR Arrest Statement:

Any person arrested by Team RAR officers shall remain under the order and authority of Team RAR command until such time as the matter is reviewed and decided according to Team RAR law, order, and discipline.
