

The Song Book

Jack was labelled The Voice of Cool by a major music label, because of his truly smooth sound reminiscent of Nat King Cole, Bing Crosby, Frank Sinatra, Dean Martin and other yesteryear greats.

Jack doesn't just sing a song, he interprets the lyrics and emotion, like the famed celebrity big band entertainers, creating 'Voice of Cool' live music, Facebook and Instagram memories.

Jack creates a fresh listening live music big band entertainment experience through new arrangements to provide the audience with an original feel and fresh emotional connection.
