

NOTICE FROM THE OFFICE OF THE UNITED STATES TRUSTEE

INSTRUCTIONS AND INFORMATION FOR PARTICIPATION IN TELEPHONIC SECTION 341 MEETINGS IN THE DISTRICT OF MARYLAND

Because of developing issues with the COVID-19 virus and the national declaration of emergency by the President of the United States, all § 341 Meetings of Creditors ("Meetings") will be conducted remotely. The information to participate in § 341 Meeting of Creditors ("Meeting") is set forth below. All parties are encouraged to contact the case trustee or check the docket for up-to-date information.

The guiding principle to this procedure is to avoid in-person contact, both during the Meetings and in preparation for the Meetings, even if that means that Meetings cannot be concluded because certain documents have to be provided at a later time.

Zoom Instructions:

- By Video: Five minutes before the scheduled time, go to: zoom.us/join and enter the Zoom ID and password listed next to the presiding trustee. Wait in the waiting room until you are brought into the conference. Mute your mic until your case is called.
- By Telephone: Five minutes before the scheduled time, dial 301-715-8592 and enter the Zoom ID and password listed below next to the presiding trustee. Place your phone on mute until your case is called.

Telephonic Instructions:

- Five minutes before the scheduled time, dial the call-in number and enter the passcode listed below next to the presiding trustee. Place your phone on mute until your case is called.

Conference Guidelines:

1. Attend from a quiet area where there is as little background noise as possible.
2. As more than one Meeting will be held during this period, listen for your case to be called. When your case is called, unmute and identify yourself.
3. Please do not speak while the trustee is talking.
4. If any party is attending the Meeting from the same location as another party, which is discouraged, except for persons who live in the same household, use separate devices to participate.
5. Once the Meeting is finished, hang up or disconnect.
6. If you become disconnected before your Meeting is finished, call back.
7. If you are participating by phone:
 - a. When speaking during your case, identify yourself.
 - b. You must use a touch-tone phone to participate. A landline is preferred, do not use a speakerphone.
 - c. Do not put the phone on hold at any time after the call is connected.
8. No Recording: The Meetings will be recorded by the trustee or United States Trustee. Any other recordings are prohibited by law.

Bankruptcy Documents: Subject to the guiding principle of avoiding in-person contact, Debtors should be prepared and have in front of them copies of documents on which they can reasonably expect to be examined (petition, schedules, statement of financial affairs, tax returns, etc.) or any documents the trustee has indicated in advance that debtors should have available for questioning. Documents should be provided to the trustee according to normal requirements when possible.

Debtor Identification: Debtors should provide copies of their photo identification and proof of Social Security number to the presiding trustee at least 5 days prior to the Meeting. Copies may be provided through debtor's counsel or directly to the presiding trustee if unrepresented. If such proof has not been provided, the 341 meeting will be held as scheduled, but will not be concluded until the trustee has received proof of identification. You will receive more specific instructions prior to your Meeting. Debtor's counsel must verify on the record that they have confirmed their client's identity prior to the Meeting.

 United States Bankruptcy Court District of Maryland Date case filed for chapter 7 12/2/21
 Case number: 21-17582 NVA Chapter: 7

Official Form 309D (For Corporations or Partnerships)Notice of Chapter 7 Bankruptcy Case -- Proof of Claim Deadline Set

10/20

For the debtor listed above, a case has been filed under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code. An order for relief has been entered.

This notice has important information about the case for creditors, debtors, and trustees, including information about the meeting of creditors and deadlines. Read both pages carefully.

The filing of the case imposed an automatic stay against most collection activities. This means that creditors generally may not take action to collect debts from the debtor or the debtor's property. For example, while the stay is in effect, creditors cannot sue, assert a deficiency, repossess property, or otherwise try to collect from the debtor. Creditors cannot demand repayment from debtors by mail, phone, or otherwise. Creditors who violate the stay can be required to pay actual and punitive damages and attorney's fees.

To protect your rights, consult an attorney. All documents filed in the case may be inspected at the bankruptcy clerk's office at the address listed below or through PACER (Public Access to Court Electronic Records at <https://pacer.uscourts.gov>).

The staff of the bankruptcy clerk's office cannot give legal advice. Consult a lawyer to determine your rights in this case. Visit <http://www.mdb.uscourts.gov/> and click on Filing Without An Attorney for additional resources and information.

Do not file this notice with any proof of claim or other filing in the case.

8. Deadlines The bankruptcy clerk's office must receive proofs of claim by the following deadlines. All claims actually filed by a creditor before conversion of the case are deemed filed in the Chapter 7 case. You need not re-file your proof of claim.	Deadline for all creditors to file a proof of claim Filing deadline: 2/10/22 (except governmental units): Deadline for governmental units to file a proof of claim: Filing deadline: _____ A proof of claim is a signed statement describing a creditor's claim. A Proof of Claim may be filed electronically from the court's web site at http://www.mdb.uscourts.gov/content/electronic-filing-claims. A proof of claim form may be obtained at www.uscourts.gov or any bankruptcy clerk's office. If you do not file a proof of claim by the deadline, you might not be paid on your claim. To be paid, you must file a proof of claim even if your claim is listed in the schedules that the debtor filed. Secured creditors retain rights in their collateral regardless of whether they file a proof of claim. Filing a proof of claim submits the creditor to the jurisdiction of the bankruptcy court, with consequences a lawyer can explain. For example, a secured creditor who files a proof of claim may surrender important nonmonetary rights, including the right to a jury trial.
9. Creditors with a foreign address	If you are a creditor receiving a notice mailed to a foreign address, you may file a motion asking the court to extend the deadlines in this notice. Consult an attorney familiar with United States bankruptcy law if you have any questions about your rights in this case.
10. Liquidation of the debtor's property and payment of creditors' claims	The bankruptcy trustee listed on the front of this notice will collect and sell the debtor's property. If the trustee can collect enough money, creditors may be paid some or all of the debts owed to them, in the order specified by the Bankruptcy Code. To ensure you receive any share of that money, you must file a proof of claim, as described above.
11. Debtor electronic bankruptcy noticing	The U.S. Bankruptcy Court for the District of Maryland offers all parties the ability to receive court notices and orders via email, instead of U.S. mail.
