DID YOU KNOW?

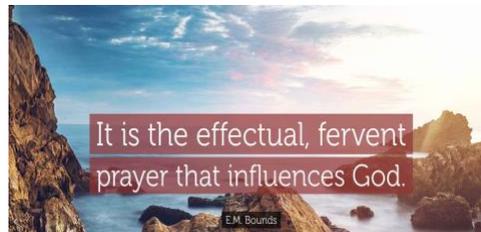

The Trimble Mansion in North Omaha at 2060 Florence Boulevard stands as a testament to a time when African American travelers relied on The Green Book to find safe places to stay during the segregation era. In the 30s or 40s and 50s, minorities could not rent a room or hotel room anywhere in any city. It was said that Ella Fitzgerald stayed there at one time. At one time in the 90's it was an apartment building. Pastor Pat & Pastor Terri's uncle lived there.
