

Pagans in Recovery

(Example Group Unity Policies)

Group Unity Behavior Policy (in-person)

In order to maintain an atmosphere of recovery and to maintain unity within PIR, the group asks everyone attending to refrain from aggressive and disruptive behavior of any kind while on the premise of [IN PERSON VENUE]. Any disruption like this and you will be asked to leave. You may be suspended from attending for up to a year. Repeat offenses and egregious offenses may lead to banning. This property does not belong to us, so we must respect this facility as well as other members in order to keep this meeting safe.

Group Unity Behavior Policy (virtual)

In order to maintain an atmosphere of recovery and to maintain unity within PIR, the group asks everyone attending to refrain from aggressive and disruptive behavior of any kind during this meeting. The chairperson may ask you to stop the disruptive behavior. If you do not, you may be temporarily kicked out of the meeting for that day. Repeat and egregious offenses may lead to banning. It is vitally important that we respect each other and this virtual space in order to maintain a safe space for all of those in recovery. Please let the chairperson know privately if anyone is harassing you.
