

Stiletto

The stiletto can be used to hold small fabric details in place as they go under the iron for pressing or fusing, such as applique details. It can also be used to help fabric under the needle of the sewing machine. Be careful when using the sewing stiletto, as the tip is very sharp. Keep the pointed end safely enclosed in its case when not in use.

