

Chalk Marker

A chalk marker or chalk pen is a writing instrument that produces chalk-like lines on fabric. It is used to mark out patterns.

It is used to mark placement of buttons, zips and pockets on the fabric before cutting.

They are made with pigment-based ink that dries to a vibrant yet powdery finish. The marks either fade or can be removed with water or heat (check which on your product).

© Nigel Trout

www.sheillasewingschool.com