

Dress Form

D

A dress form is a soft body form for a male, female or child. A dress form is constructed for the body shape and size for which garments are being made. The garment industry uses stock sizes to make ready-to-wear garments. Haute Couture salons make body forms for each client.

www.sheilasewingschool.com