

Ease

E

Ease is the distance between the garment and the body. A fitted dress will have about 2" (5cm) ease while a full garment may have 3" (7.5cm). Knit garments which have stretch can have a negative ease meaning that the garment is smaller than the body shape. Some garments are meant to have ease while others do not.

