

Markers

Fabric markers and chinks are useful for transferring sewing pattern markings, by drawing the notches, dots and dart placements straight onto the fabric. Although some sewists prefer to tack the markings or snip the notches, using a chalk pencil or water erasable pen or pencil is a much quicker method.

