

Feed Dog Teeth (Overlocker)

An overlocker has two sets of feed dog teeth that work with the differential feed. The feed dog teeth are under the presser foot. The two sets of feed dog teeth work independently: one set at the front guiding the fabric under the foot towards the needle; the second taking the fabric from behind the needle.

