

Feed dogs

F

Feed dogs are the little teeth on your sewing machine that feed your fabric evenly through the machine. These teeth help to produce perfectly spaced, even stitches whenever we sew garments, piece quilts, or applique shapes on the machine.

Feed dogs are located directly under the machine needle and move as the needle moves.

www.sheilassewingschool.com