

Flap

F

A flap in clothing is an overlapping element, often made from the same material as the garment itself. It consists of a piece of fabric that is sewn or otherwise attached to one side of the garment and can then be overlapped or folded.

www.sheillasewingschool.com