

French Seam

F

A french seam is sewn on the right side of the fabric. One half of the seam is then cut down and the other half of the seam folded over and sewn down to provide a neat finish. This seam can be used for sheer fabrics.

www.sheilassewingschool.com