

Invisible Zipper

A zipper with the tape on the right side and the teeth on the wrong side. When sewn the machine can sew next to the edge of the zip teeth on the wrong side meaning that top stitching is not visible on the right side. This type of zip closure is used mainly in garments.

