

Ironing Board

Ironing is the process of smoothing out wrinkles in a finished garment, or in fabric before it is marked and cut. This is done using a hot iron, sometimes steam, and a smoothing motion designed to settle the wrinkles out of the fabric. Ironing is usually performed on an ironing board which is designed to help achieve a good smooth finish.

