

Mitre Corner

A mitered corner is a way of finishing the corner of a fabric edge (it could be a garment, a quilt, a napkin, etc.). The mitered corner avoids extra bulk. by allowing the fabric edges to meet at a 45 degree angle.

www.sheilasewingschool.com