

Overlocker Needle

The overlocker will come fitted with appropriate needles and the instruction manual will tell you what to use. It will probably also be marked on the machine. Most modern overlockers use the same universal 130/705H needles that are used in regular sewing machines. These should work well on most types of fabric.

© Nigel Trout

www.sheillasewingschool.com