

Pivoting

P

A pivot is a turn made in the seam of the sewing machine. When sewing through the machine at the point at which the turn in the seam is required the machine is stopped with the needle down and the fabric is turned so that the machine can sew straight on.

www.sheilasewingschool.com