Self-covered buttons

Self-covered buttons are designed to allow fabric matching the garment or project to be used in the buttons. A tool is used to clip the fabric into the button.

© Nigel Trout