

Snap

A snap fastener, also called snap button, press button, press stud, press fastener, dome fastener, popper, or snap is a pair of interlocking discs, made out of a metal or plastic, commonly used in place of traditional buttons to fasten clothing and for similar purposes. Snaps can be fastened using a tool or sewn in.

© Nigel Trout

© Nigel Trout

www.sheillasewingschool.com