

Spool Pins

A spool pin is a plastic or metal stand on the top of the sewing machine. The spool may be vertical or horizontal. The spool of thread is placed onto the spool pin. If the spool pin is horizontal then a spool cap should be used. If the spool pin is vertical there may be a small felt round at the bottom of the pin; this should be retained.

