

Squaring Off

Squaring off is a quilting term. When patches are made up into blocks there is usually distortion. Squaring off is a process where the finished block is measured to ensure it is of the right size for the quilt. A ruler and rotary cutter are used to achieve the correct size.

www.sheilasewingschool.com