

Starch

Starch reduces the amount of fraying along the edge of the fabric. Starch also stiffens the fabric, making it less floppy and easier to turn the raw edge under before stitching.

© Nigel Trout

www.sheillasewingschool.com