

Stay stitch

A stay stitch is a straight stitch which is sewn inside the seam allowance around the curve of the fabric such as at the neckline. The stitching helps stop the curve from warping while it is being constructed.

www.sheillasewingschool.com