

Stitch in the Ditch

Stitch in the Ditch is a quilting technique where the quilt sandwich is joined by sewing through the seams between the quilt blocks. A special presser foot is available for some machines which has a guide to fit in between the blocks. This stitch is sometimes used in dressmaking as it can replace top stitching.

www.sheilasewingschool.com