

Stitching

Stitching is the process whereby fabric yardage is fashioned into a finished product by means of different sewing techniques. The stitching stage ensures that the product takes shape according to the pattern. Stitching requires care and precision. and can be carried out by hand or machine.

A stitch is made with thread and a threaded sewing needle through fabric or leather.

www.sheillasewingschool.com