

Straight stitch

A straight stitch is a continuous line of stitching with no spacing between each stitch. When two pieces of fabric are stitched together with a straight stitch, it forms a seam. A straight stitch is used to construct garments, as a top stitch, as a back stitch and as a basting/tacking stitch

www.sheillasewingschool.com