

Twin Stitch Needle

A twin needle is two needles joined by one shank at the top. The twin needle creates two parallel lines of straight stitches on the top side, with a small zigzag stitch connecting them on the underside. Twin needles are used for top stitching.

