

Nap

Nap is the texture left on fabric with a pile. Pile is present on fabrics such as velvet. When you rub over velvet the pile changes direction and the colour depth changes. When cutting out a fabric with pile (such as velvet or corduroy) great care must be taken to lay out pattern pieces in the right direction so that all pieces have the same nap direction.

