The CLEVELAND COMPOSERS GUILD is one of the nation's oldest new music organizations, and has had over 200 composer members over its 67-year history. There are currently about 40 professional composers in the Guild whose work represents a wide range of musical styles. In recent years the Guild has collaborated with Sestina Cleveland, the Poiesis Quartet, the American Guild of Organists, the North Coast Winds, Factory Seconds Brass Trio, Cleveland Chamber Symphony, Burning River Baroque, the Cleveland Jazz Orchestra, the Cleveland Chamber Choir, and with various local solo artists, to create multi-disciplinary concerts that engage with the arts in a new way. The CCG produces numerous live concerts every season featuring the finest performers available in Northeast Ohio. In addition to regular series programs, the Guild produces an annual Creativity: Learning Through Experience concert in tandem with the Music Settlement in University Circle and recognizes young undergraduate composers in Northeast Ohio through its Collegiate Composition Contest.
