NISSAN: A MONTH OF FREEDOM AND BREAKING BOUNDARIES

HIGHLIGHTS OF THE MONTH

Dear Friends,

This month at Chabad at UCSD was truly extraordinary, filled with the energy and spirit of Pesach across campus.

From our large, uplifting Passover Seders to the kosher-for-Passover meals served throughout the week, the impact was deeply felt.

The combination of tradition, warmth, and community created an atmosphere that was inspiring and empowering, reminding us all of the importance of bringing Judaism to every student.

SEDER ON CAMPUS

This year's Passover Seder on campus was a powerful and unforgettable experience, bringing together 65 students from diverse backgrounds in one room. As we journeyed through the story of leaving Egypt, each of the 15 steps of the Seder came alive with meaning, discussion, and personal reflection.

From the first cup of wine to the final songs, the room was filled with energy, curiosity, and a deep sense of connection to our shared story. Paired with a delicious three-course meal, the evening offered an experience of freedom, identity, and community that resonated with everyone in attendance.

PASSOVER SEDERS AT UCSD

The celebration continued on the following day with the second seder at Chabad with a packed house of students and faculty in attendance.

The second night was a family style Seder that went on till the late hours of the night, explaining the meaning of the Hagaddah and how it relates to our lives.

PASSOVER MEALS

The Passover celebration continued with a delicious Kosher for Passover BBQ on Monday, a Holiday dinner on Tuesday and concluding the Holiday with a moshiach meal on Thursday as the Holiday came to a close.

Thank you to all our generous sponsors for partnering with us and making this Passover such a great success!

MATZAH DELIVERIES

In the days leading up to Passover, we ensured that no one felt disconnected from the holiday, even if they were away from campus.

Through our shmurah matzah delivery initiative, packages were sent out to students who had returned home for the holiday, as well as to faculty members, bringing a tangible piece of Pesach directly to them, ensuring they have access to the highest quality matzah for passover.

Each delivery was more than just matzah—it was a message of connection, reminding recipients that they are part of a larger community celebrating together, no matter the distance.

FRAT-TORAH: WINGS AND LEARNING

Frat Torah, our Torah class hosted at AEPi, has become a meaningful opportunity for Jewish students to come together in a relaxed and familiar setting to explore their heritage.

Held right in the fraternity house, these gatherings spark thoughtful, honest conversations that often continue long after the session ends.

Whether diving into timeless Torah ideas or discussing their relevance to modern campus life, Frat Torah creates an environment where learning feels accessible and personal.

At these gatherings, it's inspiring to see students deepen their connection to Judaism while strengthening friendships and community.

Thank you for being part of this incredible community and ensuring the growth of Jewish life on Campus.

Warmly,

Rabbi Shmuel & Mushka Cunin
