

Elijah House Training

If you are a person who deeply feels the burdens of others and has a heart to see the Body of Christ healed, then this class is for you. Our passion is to walk alongside of the brokenhearted and lead them into healing and holiness.

Each Prayer Ministry Schools is led by a facilitator who has graduated from either a live or video school and has been officially approved by Elijah House to administer school registrations, play pre-recorded lessons, field student questions, and facilitate small groups, where students learn to bring inner healing to each other. The format is usually between three and six months. A benefit is the slower pace and easier assimilation of the material. This format also offers opportunity to form lasting bonds with fellow students from one's own local area.

In most cases, students receive healing during small group sessions, but our primary focus is to learn how to minister inner healing to others.

The cost per student is $250.00. This payment includes the cost of tuition and a study guide containing lesson notes, references and enrichment articles. The following books by John, Paula and Mark Sanford are required reading for the class. These books must be purchased separately and are not included in the cost for the course.
