Part X - FASB ASC 740 Footnote

Income Taxes and Uncertain Tax Positions

Income Tax Status - TCCA qualifies as an organization exempt from income taxes under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and is subject to a tax on income from any unrelated business, as defined by Section 509(a)(1) of the Code. TCCA currently has no unrelated business income. Accordingly, no provision for income taxes has been recorded.

TCCA has adopted the recognition requirements for uncertain income tax positions as required by generally accepted accounting principles. Income tax benefits are recognized for income tax positions taken or expected to be taken in a tax return only when it is determined that the income tax position will more-likely-than-not be sustained upon examinations by taxing authorities. TCCA has analyzed tax positions taken for filing with the Internal Revenue Service. TCCA believes that income tax filing positions will be sustained upon examination and does not anticipate any adjustments that would result in a material adverse effect on TCCA's financial condition, results of operations, or cash flows. Accordingly, TCCA has not recorded any reserves, or related accruals for interest and penalties for uncertain income tax positions at April 30, 2023.

TCCA files forms 990 in the U.S. federal jurisdiction. Federal income status dictate that tax returns filed in any of the previous three reporting periods remain open to examination. Currently, TCCA has no open examinations with the Internal Revenue Service.

staff also provide Outcome Reports to our parents along with activities that they can do in the home setting to work with their child on. This is in hopes of closing the home school connection. School Readiness and Family Engagement must work closely together to ensure the needs of the entire family are met. This program sets goals for families in seven Outcome areas; Family Well-Being, Positive Parent-Child Relationships, Families as Lifelong Educators, Families as Learners, Family Engagement in Transaction, Family Connections to Peers and Community, and Families as Advocates and Learners. Family Outcomes play a huge role in the success of the child and the ability of the family to move forward once they have completed the Head Start Program.

TCCA partners with other social service agencies and area resources to ensure parents and community members know what resources are available. TCCA does this through partnerships, MOU's, and joint community events such as a Resource Fair, Advisory Meetings, Policy Council Meetings, and the local Fall Festivals.

TCCA hosted a virtual Resource Fair in each one of our counties which allows us to reach out to all our families and families in the community that are not in Head Start, we are able to share information about our services as well as connecting them to other resources in their community. This event is held in each of our counties and is open to the community.

TCCA has also implemented Family Service Advisory Meetings twice a year working in a partnership with the School Readiness Leadership Advisory Meeting to get the best outcomes. We connect with all the communities in all the counties, and invite all community vendors to come and share their service and their criteria. Parents are also invited so they can get knowledge of any new resources that are available to them.
