CASE 19-644-I

TRIAL BY JURY DEMANDED
(12)

D.C. & M

JURY DEMAND & WRITTEN STIPULATION

Now comes the Petitioner, John Anthony Gentry, sui juris, asserting his right to trial by jury pursuant to Tenn. Const. Art I, § 6, which states: “That the right of trial by jury shall remain inviolate.”, and Pursuant to Tenn. R. Civ. P., Rule 38.01, “The right of trial by jury as declared by the Constitution or existing laws of the state of Tennessee shall be preserved to the parties inviolate.”

Pursuant to Tenn. Code Ann., 21-1-103. Right to trial by jury.

Either party to a suit in chancery is entitled, upon application, to a jury to try and determine any material fact in dispute, save in cases involving complicated accounting, as to such accounting and those elsewhere excepted by law or by this code, and all the issues of fact in any proper cases, shall be submitted to one (1) jury.

Pursuant to Tenn. R. Civ. P., Rule 38.02 – Specification of Issues

Any party may demand a trial by jury of any issue triable of right by jury by demanding the same in any pleading specified in Rule 7.01 or by endorsing the demand upon such pleading when it is filed, or by written demand filed with the clerk, with notice to all parties, within fifteen (15) days after the service of the last pleading raising an issue of fact.

Petitioner has filed an amended pleading pursuant to Tenn. R. Civ. P. Rule 15.01, as a matter of course, since Respondents have not served a responsive pleading, and pursuant to Tenn. Const. Art. I, Sect. 23.

Herein and below, pursuant to Tenn. R. Civ. P., Rule 39.01, Plaintiff stipulates specific issues of fact to be determined by jury. Facts to be determined by jury are:

- (1) Do Respondents have a duty to ensure that the type written version of the Constitution of the State of Tennessee, is properly presented to the public, and have they violated or failed to perform that duty?
- (2) Do Respondents have a duty under sworn oath to uphold the constitution, and have they violated that duty?
- (3) Do Respondents have a duty to not violate constitutionally protected rights, and have they violated or failed in their duty to uphold constitutionally protected rights?
- (4) Do Respondents have a duty receive and read petitions at the table, and have they violated or failed to perform that duty?
- (5) Does Petitioner have a constitutionally protected right to petition for redress of grievance or other proper purpose by address, and has his right been violated?

(6) Did Respondents violate their oath of office and duty to uphold the Constitution of the state by tendering falsified and counterfeit documents to this court?

(7) Did Respondents conspire to violate due process of law through intentional violation of Local Rules and Tennessee Rules of Civil Procedure, or through exploitation of unconstitutional Local Rule and violate or fail to perform their duty to uphold the Constitution of the state?

WHEREFORE, PETITIONER DEMANDS:

1. That Petitioner's inviolate right to trial by jury be upheld;
2. Due course of law and justice be administered without delay pursuant to Tenn. Constitution Art. I, Section 17;
3. For a jury of 12 to be empaneled, try the facts stipulated and render decision;
4. For such general and further relief as this Court deems appropriate and just and to which Petitioner is entitled.

Respectfully submitted,

John A Gentry, CPA
