In The General Assembly of The state of Tennessee Now Sitting

On Behalf of John Gentry and Similarly Aggrieved Citizens of state of Tennessee

APPLICATION BY ADDRESS: RESTORATION OF RIGHT TO APPLY FOR REDRESS OF GRIEVANCE OR OTHER PROPER PURPOSE BY ADDRESS OR REMONSTRANCE

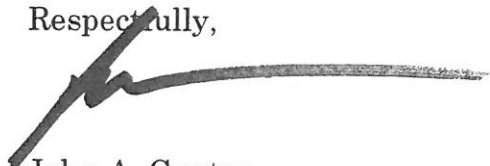

To: Representative Garrett

A large number of citizens from across the state of Tennessee assert right to apply to the powers of the government for redress of grievance and proper purpose by address, pursuant to the Tennessee Constitution, Article I, Section 23.

The right of citizens to remedy by due course of law, and justice administered without delay (Art. I, § 17), and right to instruct their representatives (obligatory clause, Art I, § 23) are rights also hereby asserted, requiring this application to be heard, considered and decided according to supreme law and the conscious of the members.

This Application made by good citizens of the state of Tennessee seeks Resolution for members to welcome proper petitions and remonstrances, and to hear and decide them as required by our beloved Tennessee Constitution. This Application seeks further resolution to reinstate the Propositions and Grievances Committee.

Respectfully,

John A. Gentry
