

JAPAN GOLDEN ROAD

III

Journey through the heartland

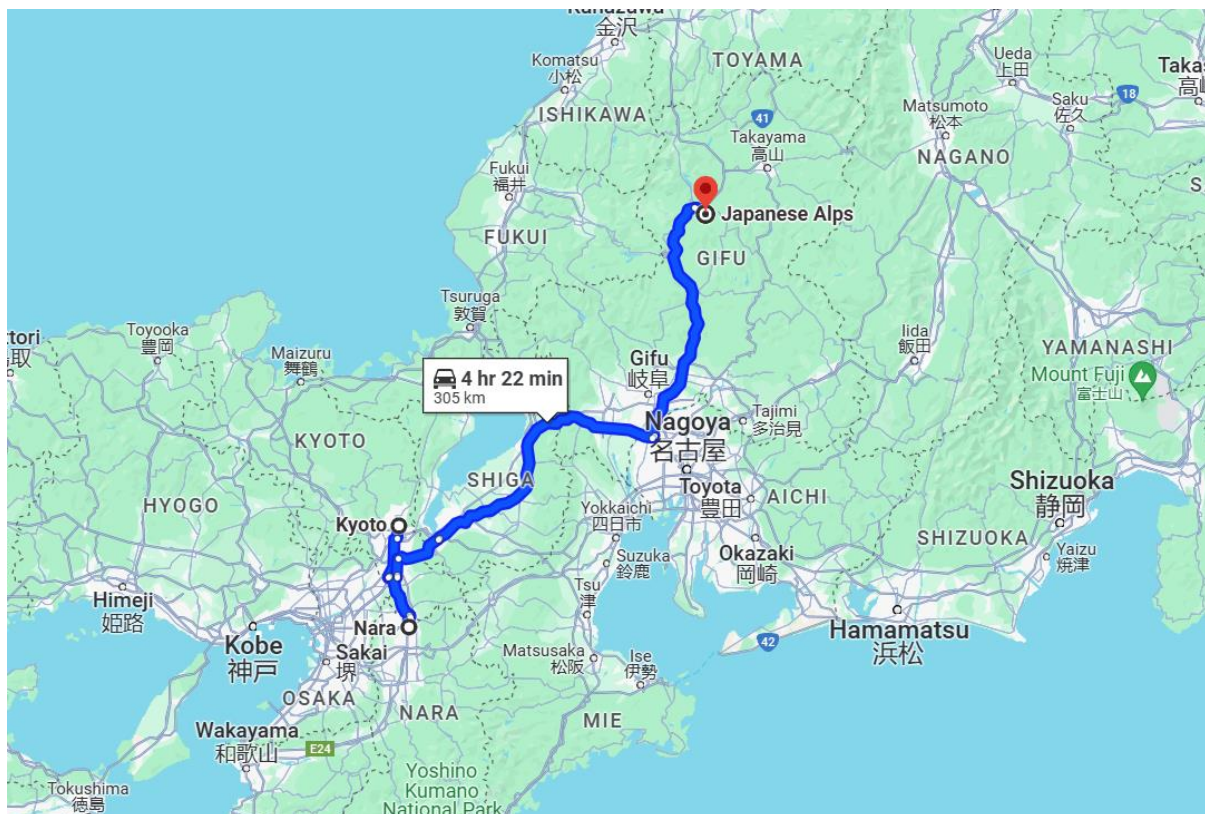

Japan Road Trip : Kyoto, Nara, and the Japanese Alps

Best for Who? This exclusive journey is crafted for the affluent traveler who has an appreciation for cultural depth, serene landscapes and the meticulous attention to detail found in Japanese hospitality.

Why Do It? To immerse yourself in the rich tapestry of Japan's history, spirituality and natural beauty. This road trip offers a unique blend of ancient traditions and modern luxury.

What to Expect? Expect a harmonious blend of cultural immersion and natural exploration. From the historic temples of Kyoto to the sacred deer of Nara and the majestic vistas of the Japanese Alps, each destination offers its own unique allure.

The Route Begin in Kyoto, the city of a thousand temples, then travel to Nara, known for its historic monuments and friendly deer. Continue to the Japanese Alps, where traditional ryokans and alpine beauty await.

Top Tip Engage a private guide who can provide access to exclusive tea ceremonies and private temple tours. Consider timing your trip with local festivals for an unforgettable experience.

Spend the Night Choose from luxury ryokans, boutique hotels or exclusive resorts that offer traditional Japanese elegance. In Kyoto, consider The Ritz-Carlton; in Nara, the luxurious Nara Hotel; and in the Alps, the exquisite HOTEL WOOD TAKAYAMA.

The Ritz-Carlton Kyoto

Nara Hotel

HOTEL WOOD TAKAYAMA

//

This handbook is your passport to discovering Japan's timeless elegance and natural splendor with sophistication and serenity.