

Provence in France

Lavender Fields and Sunshine Dreams

Southern France Road Trip : A Guide to the Heart of Europe's Elegance

Best for Who? This journey is designed for the affluent connoisseur who savors the blend of French charm, Swiss precision, Italian romance, and German tradition. It's an ideal trip for those who seek cultural immersion, gastronomic delights, and scenic drives.

Why Do It? To indulge in the diverse tapestry of Europe's finest regions. This road trip offers a curated experience of art, architecture, and landscapes that have inspired poets and painters for centuries.

What to Expect? Expect an exquisite array of experiences from wine tasting in Colmar's vineyards to sailing on Lake Maggiore. You'll enjoy the lavender fields of Gordes, the bustling markets of Aix en Provence, and the glamorous Riviera in Nice.

The Route Your grand tour begins in Colmar, France, with its fairy-tale villages, then to Geneva's pristine lakeside. Journey through Gordes' hilltop splendor, Aix en Provence's fountains and cafes, and Nice's azure coast before concluding in Allgäu's alpine meadows.

Top Tip Hire a luxury car that matches the elegance of your destinations. A personal chauffeur can enhance your experience by navigating Europe's roads with ease and expertise.

Spend the Night Stay in chateaux, boutique hotels, or private villas that reflect the character of each location. Consider Château de Berne in Provence or Château de la Gaude or Villa Gallici Hôtel & Spa in Aix-en-Provence for opulent accommodations.

Château de Berne

Château de la Gaude

Villa Gallici Hôtel & Spa

//

This handbook is your gateway to experiencing Southern France and its neighboring charms with sophistication and style.