

Standard First Aid CPR C

Learn the signs of medical emergencies and the skill necessary to help with both minor and major medical emergencies.

Options:

- 1) 1 day recert for participants that hold a valid First Aid CPR C certificate, approximately 8 hours in-person
- 2) Blended for new or expired participants, half the course done online before attending a Recert day. Approximately 4-6 hours online and 8 hours in-person

This course is offered on our calendar as a public course, but may be scheduled as a private course based on availability.

Energy Safety Canada H2S Alive

Learn how to recognize the hazards of H2S exposure and how to work safely in those environments with this industry recognized program.

Options:

- 1) 1 day in-person course for new and expired participants, approximately 8 hours in-person
- 2) Blended renewal for participants that hold a valid ESC H2S Alive certificate, theory portion completed online with a follow-up skills assessment in-person. Approximately 2-4 hours online, and 30 minutes in-person

The full course is offered on our calendar as a public course, but may be scheduled as a private course based on availability. Assessments are booked individually based on availability.

Energy Safety Canada Confined Space Entry and Monitor

Learn how to recognize and control the hazards associated with confined space work.

Options:

- 1) 1 day in-person course, approximately 8 hours in-person
- 2) Online through Energy Safety Canada, approximately 3-5 hours online. The online version yields the same certification as the in-class version.

This course is offered on our calendar as a public course, but may be scheduled as a private course based on availability.

Energy Safety Canada Fall Protection

This course provides the participants with a general understanding of the Fundamentals of Fall Protection; Regulations and standards that apply to Fall Protection; Methods of eliminating fall hazards; Equipment specifications, care, use, limitations and inspection; and Fall Protection planning requirement and importance.

Options:

- 1) 1 day in-person course, approximately 8 hours in-person

This course is offered on our calendar as a public course, but may be scheduled as a private course based on availability.

Energy Safety Canada Detection and Control of Flammable Substancce

The Detection and Control of Flammable Substances course is designed to familiarize participants with the hazards of flammable substances, precautionary measures for working in environments where flammable substances are present, and proper detection practices using catalytic detection instruments.

Options:

- 1) 1 day in-person course, approximately 8 hours in-person

This course is offered on our calendar as a public course, but may be scheduled as a private course based on availability.

Energy Safety Canada Mobile Elevated Work Platform

This course provides participants with the knowledge and general understanding of the Legislative standards, Preoperative checks, Importance of selecting the right machine, Safe operation of Elevated Work Platform (EWP) equipment. Through a combination of lectures and practical exercises participants are exposed to best practice instructions on the use, limitations, care and maintenance of Aerial Work Platforms. This course includes regulatory or provincial standards. This course has a small practical portion.

Options:

- 1) 1 day in-person course, approximately 8 hours in-person

Participants must hold a valid Energy Safety Canada fall protection certificate to take this program

This course is only offered for private booking at this time.

Basic Fire Suppression

This half day course teaches participants the basics of using a fire extinguisher. Students will learn about the elements of a fire, the different types of fires, the proper selection/use of extinguishers, and why emergency response planning is important. Following the classroom portion of this course participants will have the opportunity to extinguish a real propane fire using a water extinguisher.

Options:

- 1) ½ day in-person course, approximately 4 hours in-person and includes a theory and practical element.

This course is only offered for private booking at this time. This course can be run 2 sessions per day with a max of 10 participants per session.

Energy Safety Canada Oilfield Driver Awareness

This course is designed to provide the participant with the knowledge, skills and attitudes of a safe driver when operating a motor vehicle. Participants will learn tactics to improve their driving behavior and better understand the factors influencing driver attitudes.

Options:

- 1) 1 day in-person course, approximately 8 hours in-person
- 2) Instructor led online(zoom) through Energy Safety Canada, approximately 8 hours online. The online version yields the same certification as the in-class version.

Red Cross Psychological First Aid

Psychological First Aid (PFA) is an evidence-informed approach to help people in the immediate aftermath of a crisis or traumatic event by providing practical and emotional support to reduce distress and foster resilience.

This course also includes the recognition and care for day-to day stress in yourself and others.

Options:

- 1) Blended Program with the participants completing two online modules before attending an in-person class. Approximately 2 hours online, and 8 hours in-person

This course is offered on our calendar as a public course, but may be scheduled as a private course based on availability.

Hutt's Trucking Ltd. Blended Programs

We currently offer blended programs on a large number of topics. This involves an online portion(usually 2-3 hours) followed by an in person assessment. Topics we offer blended training on include, but are not limited to:

- Load securement
- Forklift safe operation
- Electric pallet jack safe operation
- Mobile elevated work platform
- Basic hoisting and rigging
- Knuckle picker safety
- Telehandler safe operation
- Skid steer safe operation
- Payloader safe operation
- Fall protection

These courses are privately booked by organizations as needed.

Hutt's Trucking Ltd. In-Person Assessments

We offer practical assessments on many topics for companies that are looking to verify knowledge, or update training. Topics we offer assessments on include, but are not limited to:

- Power mobile equipment
- Harness inspection and fitting
- Driving

Assessments are privately booked by organizations as needed.