

B2C - Nationwide Agent Finder Redesign

Finding a local agent is crucial for insurance customers who value personalized service. Nationwide's agent finder, initially developed through disjointed efforts, lacked optimization for user experience and did not adhere to brand guidelines.

I conducted usability research and led a redesign to enhance user experience, ensure brand consistency, and enable mobile access for locating local agents.

