Merry Christmas

This was the September Santa with a Tree project with Marty Dolphens. We had 12 carvers. Some finished that weekend, some finished later and some might still be working on it. The great thing about carving is it waits for you. Good time was had by all.

This was the December carving class with Troy Helget instructing us in carving a 17" Brown Trout. Biggest fish I got in awhile. We have carved Northern, crappie, sunfish, bass and now trout under Troy's watchful eye.

A special treat awaited us at the December carving class. Sonya had made a necklace for each of us out of diamond willow with our name burned in runic inscription and a Viking ship outlined on the back side. Awesome gift from Sonya and just shows what you can miss if you don't attend a carving class
