Rieppel receives Carver's Choice Award

(This article and picture is from the Appleton Press)

Phyllis Rieppel took two years to carve the 9 characters in her bar scene. Phyllis has been carving for 12 years and continually takes classes in Milan, Faribault, Twin Cities, Wahpeton North Dakota, Fargo North Dakota, Bettendorf Iowa, and Cumberland Wisconsin. She also attends classes at Green Lake Bible Camp in Spicer. She displays her pieces at county fairs in the area to promote the Milan Village Arts School. Great article in the Appleton Press Wednesday, April 25, 2018.

Best of all is that she is a member of our club. Way to go Phyllis.

Woodcarver Purcell Hovland

Grand Daughter, Heather Anderson, would like to find someone willing to finish this project. She would like to present it to her dad for Christmas. She is willing to pay for completing of the project. If you, or if you know of someone that could help her out, she can be reached at
