ScrapSource Named #30 on the Dallas 100™ List of Fastest Growing Companies in North Texas

(Dallas, Texas) – ScrapSource, a boutique scrap management firm that help companies make smarter scrap metal recycling decisions, announced it has been named a winner of the 29th Annual SMU Cox Caruth Institute Dallas 100™ Awards as one of the area’s fastest-growing, most dynamic privately held companies.

Caruth Institute for Entrepreneurship ranks the top 100 Dallas entrepreneurial companies annually based on percentage growth and absolute dollar growth over the previous three years. The winners represent a broad spectrum of Dallas-area businesses. The ranking of the top 100 fastest-growing companies was revealed at the awards ceremony held at The Omni Hotel in Downtown Dallas on Thursday, November 21.

Dallas 100™, co-founded by the SMU Cox Caruth Institute, honors the ingenuity, commitment and perseverance of the fastest-growing privately held entrepreneurial businesses in the Dallas area. This year’s winning companies collectively generated $3.5 billion in sales in 2018, according to Simon Mak, the Linda A. and Kenneth R. Morris Endowed Director of the Caruth Institute for Entrepreneurship at SMU Cox. Collectively, the companies grew at an average annual growth rate of 82 percent from 2016 to 2018. Together, they created almost 7,000 jobs in that same period. According to Mak, “These companies are the unsung heroes of the Dallas-area economy,” said Mak. “They are entrepreneurial dynamos, creating products and/or services that in turn create jobs and generate income for their owners, not to mention the millions of dollars they collectively contribute to our economy. For almost three decades now, it has been our honor at the Caruth Institute of Entrepreneurship to shine the spotlight on the critical role of entrepreneurship in the DFW economy. Congratulations to this year’s Dallas 100™ honorees”.

“We are excited to be selected as a three time winner for such a prestigious award”, says Larry Olschwanger, President and Founder of ScrapSource. “Our team of professionals are some of the best in the industry and collectively we provide our customers with unparalleled industry experience and best practices. We also acknowledge and thank our many customers that have trusted our company to handle their disposition of all scrap metals generated by their manufacturing plants”.
