

The menu is set against a background of a snowy wooden surface, framed by a decorative border of evergreen branches, pinecones, and red berries. At the top, the word "Salute" is written in a large, black, cursive font. To its right is an illustration of two wine glasses filled with red liquid. Below this, the words "WINTER DRINKS" are printed in a bold, green, sans-serif font. The menu lists five drinks, each with its name, price, and ingredients in a mix of black and green fonts. At the bottom, there is a call to action and a QR code.
