

Terms of Service

Last updated: May 20, 2026

Welcome, and thank you for being here.

These Terms of Service are intended to clearly explain how the educational resources, coaching materials, digital products, courses, memberships, emails, downloads, and other content provided through Faithful Families Coaching operate.

By purchasing, accessing, or using these materials, you agree to the following terms.

Educational Purpose Only

All content provided through Faithful Families Coaching is intended for educational, informational, and personal growth purposes only.

The materials provided are not:

- medical advice
- mental health treatment
- therapy
- legal advice
- crisis intervention
- or professional counseling services

Participation in these resources does not create a therapist-client relationship.

If you are experiencing a mental health crisis, abuse, suicidal thoughts, or concerns about your safety or the safety of others, please seek help from a qualified professional or emergency services in your area.

Personal Responsibility

You are responsible for how you use the information and resources provided.

The goal of these materials is to support learning, awareness, emotional growth, communication skills, and healthier relational patterns. However, individual results will vary depending on personal circumstances, participation, consistency, and many other factors outside our control.

No guarantees are made regarding specific outcomes or results.

Digital Products & Access

Many of our products and resources are delivered digitally through email, downloads, audio files, videos, memberships, or online platforms.

It is your responsibility to:

- provide a valid email address
- whitelist our email address if needed
- and ensure you can access the materials provided

If you experience technical issues accessing purchased content, please contact us and we will do our best to help resolve the problem.

Refund Policy

Because digital products are delivered immediately and cannot be “returned,” refunds are generally not offered unless otherwise stated on the sales page for a specific product or service.

However, we genuinely want people to have a positive experience. If you encounter a problem with your purchase, please reach out and we will do our best to help.

Personal Use Only

All materials provided through Faithful Families Coaching are for personal use only.

Please do not:

- reproduce

- resell
- redistribute
- copy large portions
- share paid content publicly
- or use these materials to create your own competing products or programs

You are welcome to share links to publicly available resources, podcasts, blog posts, or promotional materials.

Community Expectations

If you participate in any group, membership, live session, or online community connected to Faithful Families Coaching, you agree to engage respectfully with others.

Harassment, abusive behavior, hate speech, threats, or repeated disruption may result in removal from the community without refund.

We aim to create spaces that are supportive, honest, respectful, and safe for growth.

Changes to Products or Services

From time to time, products, resources, pricing, platforms, schedules, or content may change, be updated, or be discontinued.

We reserve the right to make reasonable changes as needed in order to improve or maintain our services.
