GUNS FOR HIRE

Known as the "C" word, consultants do not work in your best interest; instead, they burrow their way into your company until they have eaten all of your cheese. More than just a "gun for hire" Jimmyj.com provides insights and a plan for you to win. Heavy on research and action, we will never waste your time or money.

the C word

Our passion is simple,
to brutally exterminate all consultants.

Grand Poobah
 jimmyj@jimmyj.com

Jim Jardin has connected people, vehicles, and fleets through telematics for over 25 years. He holds a bachelor's degree in business administration, focused on marketing, from California State University San Marcos. Since joining Directed Electronics in 1994, he has held various roles with increasing responsibility across marketing, product development, operations, and customer engagement. Most notably, he led some of the first telematics deployments in the industry with Wingcast in 2000 and Viper SmartStart in 2009.

Starting in 2011 as Vice President of Marketing and UBI, Jim led a joint venture with OCTO Telematics to bring the benefits of Usage-Based Insurance to North America.

Jim has seen and done everything from General Motors (GM) to MTV's "Pimp My Ride."

Jim joined Suntech Telematics in January 2019. Since then, he has worked closely with CEO Rob Martin to define the market strategy and lead the team to double its sales volume yearly. Currently working with Suntech as an Executive Business Development "Gun for Hire" he is exploring and developing new business units with Suntech's global Strategy team.
