

REDSOUL DESIGN LIMITED –UK REACH POLICY

The UK has now left the EU, following a transition period that ended 31 December 2020. As part of the European Union Withdrawal Act 2018, EU REACH Regulation was copied across into UK law under the title UK REACH. REACH and its associated legislation have been amended to make it suitable for operation within the UK market. It is important to note that the key principles of EU REACH are present within UK REACH. The REACH Statutory Instrument can be found on legislation.gov.uk.

Companies that supply and purchase substances, mixtures or articles to and from the EU/EEA/Northern Ireland and Great Britain (England, Scotland and Wales) will need to ensure that the relevant duties are met under both pieces of REACH legislation.

Under the Northern Ireland Protocol the EU REACH Regulation continues to apply to Northern Ireland, while UK REACH will regulate the access of substances to the GB market.

Redsoul Design Limited states compliance with the UK Reach Policy

Redsoul Design Ltd designs and produces / supplies prototypes and parts for our customers and clients based on their own design and material specifications.

Redsoul Design Ltd will advise on materials and their suitability for any of the design work it is contracted for, but ultimately the material choice for a project is the responsibility of the customer, and it is the customer who is responsible for the obligations of REACH and other relevant regulations

Customer-supplied materials are outside of the scope of our review, and we are unable to make any representation with respect to customer-supplied materials where this option is available to our customers.

Redsoul Design buys and receives products from inside the UK and also with-in the EU. Based on the information from the suppliers of these products, any product we supply is compliant with REACH regulations.
