

A PRECIOUS LIFESTYLE

INTRO: Since life is genuine like pure gold, then life neither change to be the future nor a change from the past but is always now and only now. So, now never change; only what happen now change.

I must address us about how GOD brought us to this precious moment to live life together, which manifest the most precious lifestyle, because life is not about trying to be successful; you are born successful. Since living life is the most successful thing to do, and you can't be more successful than how GOD blessed us with a life to not just meet our need, but a life in excess, plus more, we have a more meaningful existence than a rock. Yes, us! We can see, hear, eat, live to experience happiness, success, plus comfort. Some ask me, "why I dress up". I dress for this successful occasion to live my life as praise to GOD for how he dress us with His glory. Therefore, we must not allow the Devil to messed us up from having this precious moment of having life together.

HOOK

Why make living life so complicated than it has to be, and why try to figure it out.
I do not need to create a life
to live my life, since one has been made for me, which is life. Therefore, I live my life in CHRIST instead of living it in my life.

GOD and I are twinned. Since I was made in HIS image, I'm destined for greatness. I am so determined, I will never rescind from living a disciplined lifestyle that reflect HIS image ...

Since peace is a quality of GOD, then peace deify life in you to reflect the life of GOD, and since love purify life, which is peace, peace is life in its purest form. So why modify life,

when it is perfect, that is, beyond improvement? You say, “why life”?

Because it is the only place to live my life. If you try life according to the laws in the Bible, which identify life as love, peace and other fruits of the spirit, and beautify life around you, you would glorify life, too, and enjoy this highlife.

One thing about a lowlife; it will cause someone to have no life.

I got a new lifestyle that is more precious than gold and ruby.

People who once knew me, can't believe it's me, but it's yours truly.

The new me; newly made in the image of GOD. Blessed so hugely.

Many are called, yet few be chosen by GOD to flow so smoothly on the mic. That's why I got these M.C.s looking sad like droopy, young ladies still chasing me around ... like groupies. Beat so groovy, and lyrics so juicy and ripe, the government acting looney over my controversial lyrics. I am absolutely right though. It's like a love/hate relationship. That's how we boogie.

You know that I have taste, because these fools always copy and paste my lifestyle to theirs. God grace me; therefore, I cannot be replaced.

So they can't stop me. They need the original to make more copies.

OUTRO:

Most people, who buy a house, merely think about having the money to afford the house. Yet a house is more expensive than just buying it. Can you also afford to maintain it? Moreover, you are not just investing a lot of money into your home to maintain it, you must also invest a lot of time, and hard work into it. This is true with anything (including your lifestyle).

Once you establish your lifestyle, which is how you want to live your life, you are still not finished. Now you must maintain your lifestyle. It is like working out. Therefore, your lifestyle will dissolve like muscles, if you stop working out. This is why faith is the substance to bring your goal(s) into reality, and to maintain it (Hebrew 11:1).

Yet these worldly institutions will have you to think that you must be highly intelligent to develop life skills. You do not need to be a wizard to master life. I could understand if life did not exist. Then, yes, life is difficult; however, life already exists. So why try to figure out life, which is impossible, just live it. In other words, just learn the basics of life, which is common sense, work hard, stay disciplined, focus, and study your craft. This will advance and improve your skill, help you to understand life and accomplish any goal. As a matter of fact, just doing the basics will develop your intelligence, and skill.

Everybody is born with an ignorant state of mind; however, if you follow the teaching of CHRIST, this will evolve your mind into the state of GOD to live a heavenly lifestyle. I leave you with this, saints. Nowhere else is life, there is nothing beyond life, under life, after life or before life; moreover, your life starts and ends here in life. Therefore, life is the beginning and the end. Since Christ JESUS is the way, the truth and the life, do not worry about figuring out life. Just follow JESUS. He will lead you to life, in life, through life and with life forever. Now we know GOD as omnipresent, omnipotent, and omniscient, but I would like to introduce HIM to you as also Omnino, because he is all of now, and HE will be forever now. Therefore, now is all that really matters. Amen!
